

Tiffany & Bosco Shareholder Named as Lead of the Economic Club of Phoenix

Rob Royal to Hold President's Position for 2010-2011 Board Year

PHOENIX, AZ – October 19, 2010 – The law firm of Tiffany & Bosco P.A. is pleased to announce that shareholder Rob Royal has been named as the President of the Economic Club of Phoenix. Mr. Royal is a twenty-nine year veteran of the legal profession with experience representing companies, directors, officers and owners regarding intra-corporate disputes and business divorce.

Mr. Royal has been involved with the Economic Club of Phoenix since 2004 and has held a variety of committee and board positions. In his new role, Mr. Royal will be responsible for leading board of director meetings and representing the Economic Club of Phoenix at various events within the community. He has also been tasked with helping to raise the awareness of the organization in the business community, establish partnerships with business organizations and make the club the place for valley business leaders to make major announcements to the members and the local media, among other things. Mr. Royal describes the value of ECP as follows:

“All business owners and management benefit greatly from attending our monthly luncheons featuring the nation’s top executives describing what makes them and their organization successful.”
